Minutes of July 1981 Meeting

The July meeting of the West End Association was held on July 14 at the home of Glen and Joyce Gravlee. We started the meeting late and without a quorum but eventually nine of the twelve board seats were filled and all four officers were present. Note: Mike Page has resigned and Chuck Hotchkiss has been appointed to fill the Vice President post until the September general meeting.

There have been a number of actions intended to make the West Ender a more useful communication network and Julia Wilson has taken on a task which should be another step in that direction. Julia will be our real estate coordinator. The idea is to make us all aware of what's happening to the property in West End. What's for sale, what's for rent, what's been sold and who the new buyers are. What's happening on the tax front and any other information that you feel is of interest to the community. Julia is not in the real estate business - she will not act as an agent - she will put the information in the West Ender.

Don Kirk & Chuck Hotchkiss reported that as of June 30 our records indicate that more than 1/3 of our members have not paid their 1981 dues which were due January 1, 1981. Bills are being mailed to those folks.

The programs in Grace Court are rolling along thanks to a lot of hard work by Mary Beth Chapman and Susan Rosen. Another MIME Concert will be coming up on July 28 and there will be band concerts in August and September - eat your heart out Graylyn! The July 28 MIME Concert will have two additional attractions. First it will be a Hat Nite - there will be a prize for the most interesting, bizarre, wild hat in the crowd. One fabulous prize. And, it will be homemade ice cream nite! Please call Jim or Carlie Hughes to tell them how much you can bring and they will try to work out what flavor would be desirable.

Ann Freeman presented the stained glass plaque commissioned by the West End Association this spring. The 12 by 14 inch "window" is patterned after the West End logo and uses beveled glass to highlight the design. Four local artists submitted designs for the plaque which will be awarded annually to the West End Association member who has won the Meritorious Service award. The Chrysalis Art Glass Co. on Brookstown Avenue was awarded the contract and produced this handsome piece.
Bill Wise.

The next board meeting of the West End Association will be held at the home of Chuck and Liz Hotchkiss (1029 W. End Blvd.) at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 11, 1981

Personal and Home Protection

Protecting your home from vandals and/or thieves. We continue to experience breakins and robberies in all sections of West End and although it is frustrating to think that thieves can operate right under our noses and get away with it, the police and home protection specialists say that there are a number of ways to make your property appear a high risk case to thieves and to back up that appearance!

Appearance is the key. If the house looks as if no one is at home or no one is looking after the property, it is likely to become a candidate for further tests by the thief. The simple thing is to ring the door bell and/or walk around the house. If there is mail laying around they can get the name of the resident, look up the phone number and check it out with a series of calls. If the yard is unkempt, newspapers not taken in, if the sidewalk looks unused, if the porch furniture does not move for a week, if there is no car in the driveway or parked over the oil spot at the curb, and nobody at home, idea gets stronger and stronger. If the house is dark two or three evenings or has just one small light burning in the same place all the time, the invitation to break in increases.

So what can you do? First, DO NOT STOP THE PAPER AND THE MAIL! Stopping these items involves a lot of people and a number of records. There are a number of chances for the wrong people to learn that you will be gone for a week or two. And you need to have an adult around your place every day. Twice or three times a day - to look around, to move the porch furniture, to park their car in the drive, to mow the lawn and trim as you do regularly. An adult because young people are not generally good at details and this is a detail job, it must be done correctly every day without fail. Equip your home with some light timers and let them run all the time. Use at least two in the main section and one in a bedroom. Add a timer in the bathroom when you go away. You must have a neighbor who will swap house watching chores with you and if you spend $25.00 for some timers to protect a "$1,000" investment in personal possessions seems money well spent. More on home security next month. -Security Committee-

REAL ESTATE CORNER

Reversing its position, Board of Directors of the West End Association has decided not to rely on the professional real estate community to help in publishing a monthly article concerning real estate affairs in our neighborhood. Instead, Julia Wilson (817 West End Blvd., Telephone No. 727-1110) has volunteered to be responsible for coordinating, collecting and disseminating real estate information related to the West End neighborhood. It is our hope to be able to maintain a listing of homes for sale, whether by owner or by agent in the West End, and as well a listing of all apartments available for rent. We hope to publish such information monthly in the newsletter and ask that our members please work closely with Julia Wilson in seeing that these listings are current and comprehensive. We hope through the newsletter to create a new vehicle which should strengthen the ability of our members to sell and rent their property. We hope by our August newsletter to begin a tentative initial listing of all such properties or rentals.

By creating a central listing and by giving high visibility to it through monthly publication in the Westender, we hope to answer our community's need for such a communication device. If you are contacted by individuals seeking real estate purchase or rental information, please have them contact Julia Wilson.
