West End Neighborhood

May, 1991

WEST END BOARD MEETING MINUTES

May 7, 1991

The West End Association met at the home of Peggy and Sam Matthews on May 7, 1991. There were 18 people present. Bill Sugg, President, called the meeting to order at 7:35.

Historic District

Bill Wise reported about the status of West End being designated a historic district. Because of the length of time required to resolve this issue, President Sugg appointed Ben Wilson, Bill Wise, and Martin Sokoloff to meet with Nancy Pleasants and report at the next meeting.

Social Committee

Tim Nichols announced the July 4 parade and neighborhood activities planned. There will be an apple pie bake-off, an Uncle Sam costume contest, and a mini-sports/games competition for the children, in addition to the parade and picnic. Anyone who wishes to help judge the contests or assist with the games should contact Tim Nichols at 725-9436.

At Grace Court This Summer:

June 9th - Blind Dog (band featuring Sam Sanger)

Grace Court Park, 6:30 p.m.

Picnic starts at 6:00 p.m.

Details to follow in separate mailing

July 4th - neighborhood celebration

August - Urban Arts

September - membership picnic.

Membership Committee

September 14 (21st rain date) the WEA will have a yard sale, bake sale and plant sale in Grace Court Park. This will be a way to raise money and recruit new members to the association.

Items for sale can either be donated (all proceeds to West End Garden Club) or sold with the seller retaining 90% of the proceeds and the remaining 10% going to the West End Garden Club.

Crystal Towers

At the June Board meeting a process will be decided on to bring into the West End fold this neighborhood.

West End Garden Club

To meet on May 16 at Shirley Fly's house.

Recycling

To begin on July 1. WEA President Sugg will send a thank you to our alderwoman, Nancy Pleasants for helping to include our neighborhood in this project.

Garber/Lask Tennis Open

Dottie Wise moved and Bill Gibson seconded that the WEA donate $50.00 to this open. Approved unanimously.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 8:45 !!!

Respectfully submitted,

Peggy F. Matthews, Secretary.

RE-CYCLING – WHO NEEDS IT?

I'm a little landfill, small and smashed,
Here is your garbage, here is your trash,
When I get all filled up, then I roar,
Recycle now, or see me next door.

The West End is one of a dozen Winston-Salem neighborhoods included in a city plan to collect recyclable trash -- glass, newspapers, cans and plastic. The program is now expected to go into effect on June 18, 1991. The plan calls for curbside pick-ups on the same day that trash is collected; we don't know yet whether the "curb" can be the back alleys instead of our streets. Each household will be supplied with a bin, into which the recycler will place trash. You'll probably be asked to bag your extra newspapers and set them next to the bin. In early, June, the city will send notices out to each household with more specific what, when, where and how information. Welcome to the 21st century.

ACCIDENT AT HANES PARK

As readers of this newsletter may recall, the topic of safety in the "tot lot" in Hanes Park at the bottom of the hill on Brookstown Avenue has been a topic of discussion at several WEA board meetings. The accident waiting to happen finally did. Fortunately, no one was hurt. Apparently, two youths "borrowed" a vehicle and took it for a joy ride. The vehicle, which was travelling on West End Blvd., jumped the curb and sidewalk, hit a tree (destroying it) and rolled down the grade, stopping against the swingset. The driver and a passenger fled the scene and have not been apprehended. For some unknown reason, the Winston-Salem Journal saw no reason to bother reporting this story. Apparently, Hanes Park is only news when someone wants to control the Park!

Advertisers Of The Month

Garden Club Members Pay Attention! New Advertiser! Bill Warlick, a respected Piedmont Horticulturist, has spent more than four years developing an inventory of specimen size, container grown, hardy perennials. More than 1000 hybrid day lilies and astilbe plants of exceptional quality are in full bloom for your selection at Bill's container field off Country Club Road. It's worth the trip just to see the mass of beautiful plants in full bloom. Call Bill at 765-4906 after 5 or on weekends -- he knows some "stuff" about plants!

City Beverage -- next door to Lighthouse Restaurant on Burke Street. Summer time is cold beer and ale, chilled wine and that's our line. Our walk-in cooler holds more than 200 cases of Domestic and Imported beer and ale plus kegs and quarts and liters and splits and tappers! We can arrange for your office picnic beverages and snacks, or fins that special wine for just two. Open 9 to 9, SIX DAYS A WEEK. Phone 722-2774.

It's Spring at The Garden Path! Just arrived, statuary from hedgehogs to gargoyles. Recirculating fountains for your garden or patio. Rabbit cachepots, verdi-gris bird baths and lions head planters to name a few. Rabbits from Charleston Pottery. Also coming at the end of May, quality replicas from the ancient world by PFR Reproductions out of London, England. We look forward to seeing you at the Garden Path!
