Other News

Treasurer Mike Hill indicated the flow of annual dues has decreased. A formal report will be presented at the July meeting. The CDs are due in August and will be reinvested.

Terry Mandle is the new West End Association Secretary.

Hawley House Update—Joel Leander informed Jim Vaughan that Forsyth Rehabilitation Houses, Inc., a.k.a. the Hawley House contacted their primary funding source, the Kate B. Reynolds Foundation for possible funding to purchase the houses on West Fourth Street. The Kate B. Reynolds Foundation turned down their request based upon the fact that moving their facility into West End could be controversial. Joel stated the Hawley House is investigating property on Waughtown Street.

New West Ender Editors

Please note the change in editors for the West Ender. I have enjoyed the opportunity to bring the news of West End to you over the past year. Regrettably, I will be no longer be able to be a part of the West End Association as I am moving to Baltimore this month. However, Warren Sparrow and Scott Warhaver have responded to the call for a new editor. Both gentlemen bring experience and talent to the West Ender. I know they will enjoy the opportunity to report the events occurring in West End and our community.

—Kathy Taylor Bradham

Meridian/Carr Properties- Removal of asbestos and materials from the two-story white frame house across West Fourth Street from Petree Stockton has begun. The building on the property is expected to be demolished within the next three weeks and construction should begin immediately afterwards. Two units have been sold. The Board recommended new construction should be considered for the House Tour.

Holiday House Tour- Laura Burrows needs volunteers for various committees. Laura shared several photographs of possible houses for the tour. The committee chairs will meet in July. A chairperson is needed for the House Captain committee.

Summerfest Ice Cream Social and the BIG CHILL

The Downtown Church Center is sponsoring its fourth annual ice cream social at Grace Court on Sunday, August 11. All flavors of delicious homemade ice cream will be available along with a variety of entertainment for the whole family.

Besides face painting and clown for the kids, the Mount Olive Baptist Gospel group will perform along with the Salem Brass Ensemble and the Traditional Choice Barbershop Quartet. The Ice Cream Social will be from 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. Cost is $3.50 per person or $10.00 per family.

In addition to a relaxing summer evening, you can watch to see how quickly several of the local ministers are able to "chill out" that evening. The clergymen will be sitting on large ice blocks seeking donations. Come see who is the "coolest" one in town.

Change in Worship Hours at St. Paul's

Please note the change of worship service hours at St. Paul's for the summer months. Services will be held each Sunday at 8:00 and 10:00 a. m. during the months of June, July, and August.

YMCA Board positions- John Merschel's position on the Central YMCA's Board has expired. Sami Ousley's position on the YMCA Board is vacant since she has moved. The West End Association Board nominated Dianne Winebrenner as a representative on the Central YMCA Board. Dianne is a current member of the YMCA and has expressed interest in becoming a Board member. Jim Vaughan will contact Dianne regarding her nomination. Anyone interested in the second vacancy should contact Jim.

Dining for Friends- West End residents generously donated over $500.00 to the AIDS Task Force at the Grace Court Dining For Friends event organized by Theodora Hill and Melissa Mirchandani.

Parking Issues- Parking has been a real problem on Jersey Street lately. Wanda Merschel volunteered to contact the Traffic/Transportation Department to investigate having more stop signs installed to reduce speeding through the neighborhood. Areas of high traffic are Piedmont, Fourth Street, First Street and West End Boulevard. The majority of problems arise from cut-through traffic.
