

OCTOBER 1999

MINUTES FROM THE SEPTEMBER MEETING

Nineteen people attended the October meeting held at Brunson Elementary School cafeteria.

Officer Bryant with the Winston-Salem Police Department reported that 2 additional bicycle officers will begin patrolling an expanded area in the Hanes Park area. You can contact the Bike Patrol Office at 727-2177.

Members voted on a resolution thanking the City of Winston-Salem and other groups for their offer to install the Historic Signs in the West End.

Mike Prince, owner of the Burke Street Pub, spoke to our group about his efforts and ideas concerning the problem some West End residents are having during and after hours from some patrons of the bars on Fourth St. He stated his willingness to work with other bar owners and the West End Association to resolve these issues. A Liaison Committee was formed to work with the Burke Street bar owners. The committee members are: Keith & Felice Avery (chairpersons), John Hauser, Nick Kefal and Warren Sparrow.

The next West End Association meeting will be at Brunson Elementary School cafeteria on October 5 from 7:00 PM to 8:45 PM. Everyone in the West End is invited to attend.

EDITOR NOTES

After the September meeting, some of the West End members and I adjourned to the newest restaurant in the West End - the 4th Street Filling Station located at the corner of 4th Street and Brookstown Avenue, the old Shobers. Owner Fred Vlasis has remodeled an old favorite and kept much of the former charm. The outside courtyard, which is handicapped accessible, has some new plantings and unique dyed concrete patio. The interior dining area has been enlarged and is perfect for those looking for a more intimate dining experience.

The menu touches on flavors from around the globe - Caribbean, Italian, Thai, Greek, Chinese. It also has traditional favorites such as Philly steak, buffalo wings and grilled salmon. We started with the Crabmeat Wontons. The crabmeat stuffing is homemade - light with a delicate creamy base. The tasty wonton shell was crispy and very fresh. Sweet-and-sour and horseradish sauces accompanied the wontons, both were excellent.

Next were the salads, Fried Oyster Salad, Spinach Salad and a Garden Salad. All were plentiful with a wide variety of greens. The fried oysters were lightly breaded and very good. The spinach salad had homemade croutons that really added to this classic favorite. However, the vinaigrette salad dressing could use a little more stirring.

The entrees were an interesting mix - I chose the Shrimp Mediterranean. A delightful medley of sautéed shrimp with fresh tomatoes, onions and garlic tossed with fettuccine and garnished with feta cheese. If you love pasta with seafood - this is a real gem! Others had the Quatro Formaggi Pizza - a 4 cheese masterpiece with a light garlic marina the sauce. Another excellent pizza was the Caribbean Chicken Pizza with jerk seasoned chicken, red onions, hot peppers and fresh cilantro. Both had homemade crusts that were top notch in flavor and texture. The nachos, which were an appetizer, really qualified as an entree in size. Chips of all colors were smothered in a unusual chili, cheese and jalapeños mix with sour cream and salsa.

Finally - dessert. I had a piece of carrot cake that rivaled the Midtown Dessertery - a personal favorite. In all, the food and service were excellent and the prices very reasonable. I give the 4th Street Filling Station - 4 stars (out of 5). See you there!
