July 2001

News from the June 5, 2001 West End Association Meeting

Treasury Audit: The minutes from our April WEA meeting reported that Treasurer Dan Falken and David Poythress would participate in the audit of funds raised in last year's fund drive. Becky Sparrow offered to participate in the audit as a CPA. Save the Houses: Plans are still underway to move the smallest of the four YMCA houses to a lot next door to the home of Billy Keith. YMCA: The YMCA's proposal to change Sunset Drive to one-way and add diagonal parking on one side of the street was to be addressed at the next HDC meeting. The assistant city manager Tom Griffin was said to have the authority to decide unilaterally on changing the street direction. Concern was expressed about the lack of notification given to the Association. Members questioned whether a study had been done to assess traffic levels and impact on surrounding streets. Another concern was the possible loss of the sidewalk on the YMCA side of the street. Neighborhood Watch: Co-president Ann Dougherty read a crime report for the area that included an assault near Carolina Street. It was indicated that theft is still a problem and residents were reminded to keep valuables out of vehicles and keep vehicles locked. – submitted by Kathleen Ramich

Augsburg Lutheran Church has approached the West End Association for a zoning change on what was the old Friends Church at the corner of Broad and 6th Street. Currently the property is not complying with a multi-family zoning. They would like to change the zoning to Pedestrian Business (PB). The West End Association voted to support PB with Specialized use. This requires a site plan and that the Church submit any future changes on property use to the Planning Board rather than allow changes of businesses on the property at the owner's discretion. The Association felt that the PB-S zoning was the best they could support considering the desire to keep the neighborhood zoned residential. This compromise would allow the current residential zoning to change to accommodate the current rental of the former church and offices to not-for-profits. There is a detailing shop and rental of the parking lot occurring within the property. Augsburg Lutheran is in the process of deciding whether they should change the current zoning and which zoning to apply for. From our Co-Presidents:

Please join us in continuing the tradition of celebrating the Fourth of July as a neighborhood. A committee has been working hard to arrange a good time for children and adults. As we come together as a community on the Fourth it is good to remember the freedoms that we are celebrating and how these freedoms apply to all. Let’s celebrate diversity, the struggle for equality, and the challenge to embrace “the tired, the poor and the homeless.”

The next few weeks are important weeks culminating months of advocacy to maintain the residential nature of our community. The YMCA has applied for a zoning change to allow more business zoning and more parking within the block they own. A new site plan for Sunset Drive has been proposed by the City and the YMCA to make Sunset one way with diagonal parking. A neighbor will keep one of the YMCA owned houses residential by moving it down the block and the Y has proposed keeping the “Freeman” house as a business location. A larger administrative building is proposed by the Y to be built after the other houses are demolished.

There are precious few homes which “contribute to the historical nature” of the West End and have been catalogued. These four houses are among those “contributing”. It is unfortunate that the YMCA has speculated on these homes with the hopes of changing the area to business zoning even as we struggle to maintain the delicate balance between the neighborhood we live in and one where people work and play. The hearings on both Sunset Drive and new zoning will occur on the 11th and 12th. There will be an important meeting of those concerned about the zoning proposal at 7PM on Tuesday, July 10th, at Grace Court Park. Please come and share ideas and strategy to help keep the residential balance in our neighborhood. Also, if you would like to speak for the West End at the zoning meetings on July 11th or 12th, please call us.
