The West Ender

By and for the West End Neighborhood

September 2007

It's Time for the Third Annual ArtsFest!

Once more this wonderful arts festival will take place in Grace Court in Historic West End. (See the enclosed flyer for more information.) But we need volunteers to make this event as successful as it has been in years past. So—attention to you all:

We need YOU on or before September 29th and we promise not to sell this list of names for fame or fortune.... (Beware though, that you may be identified by your fabulous ARTSfest T-shirt!)

So find your forte below and dust off that "Good neighbor" image. We guarantee you'll enjoy yourself because, after all, "There's no business like show business!"

Please see the list, printed within this newsletter, of opportunities for volunteering. You'll also find necessary contact information. Please sign up—we really need your help to make this happen.

The next WEA meeting will take place at the Tise House on Tuesday, September 11 at 7 pm. The WEA Board meets on the third Tuesday of each month at 7 pm at 1224 Glade Street. These meetings are open to all WEA members.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Gracing Our Court with Art! ArtsFest 2007

Unless you simply don't read the local press you'd be hard-pressed not to have noticed the ample coverage the third biannual ArtsFest at Grace Court is already getting in our local press. (For instance, the cover of the Winston-Salem Journal's "Artview" featured one of the pieces that will be featured at the event.) And there is even more extensive coverage yet to come! So it's time once again to get out to support that "City of the Arts" in the West End. A really huge success back in 2003, its inaugural year, and then again in 2005, its second showing, ArtsFest has established itself not only as a signature West End event but a mainstay of the local and regional art community. Though we're talking the creative arts here, these efforts do not create themselves. They need countless hours of volunteer planning and work and the support of a splendid assortment of West End businesses as well as some outside our neighborhood. The merchants and businesses that you'll see as sponsors (you'll find them listed elsewhere in this issue) should be familiar to many of you. And if they are not they should be, and you should go out of your way to check their services out, for they are the kinds of commercial enterprises that help make the West End the vibrant and diverse community it is—the kind that supports the arts as a way to enrich the experience of living and working in this community. We can't thank the people who did the work enough nor can we neglect to commend those businesses that have made a point of stepping up to sponsor ArtsFest. You'll find that most have absolutely no overt tie to the arts per se - but they all have a sincere desire to be a part of this community. Please thank them and support them. See you at ArtsFest in September. Let's hope we have cool weather and no rain!

Steven Joiner

Our 3rd biennial art festival needs YOU! We're looking for VOLUNTEERS to run errands & make deliveries before the fair; pitch in on t-shirt sales, volunteer check-in, artist assistance, park maintenance, during the event; and clean up & tear down afterwards. Think of the benefits of volunteering: Fun and fellowship, spending the day with great art, promoting our West End neighborhood, attending an "invitation-only" after-party, and getting a limited-edition art T-shirt too!

VOLUNTEER JOB DESCRIPTIONS

- BEFORE EVENT
