Neighborhood Watch:

Let's meet to discuss ideas on how to keep our homes, parks, and streets safe. Attend the February 2nd at the Public Safety Center (Cherry and 8th Street) to learn more about starting a neighborhood watch on your block. Report any suspicious activity in the neighborhood, call the police and e-mail thewestender@yahoo.com so that we can get the word out via e-mail. (Please sign up for the West End Listserv to get these e-mails.) Neighborhood watch activity is also updated, as needed, on the West End Blog. <http://westendneighbors.blogspot.com>. Together we can keep crime down in the West End.

It's Our Own "Super Tuesday" in the West End!

In my final column as President of the West End Association I'd like to make a very serious appeal for you to turn out for our very own primary election for the leadership of the WEA. Not only do we have quite a few new people standing for election but we also have a fairly unprecedented set of circumstances surrounding the table officers: only one person serving now will be returning. The other three positions, secretary, vice-president and president will all be filled by new individuals because of variety of issues - term limits, moves out of the area, etc. Therefore, there will also be truly new leadership for the West End that I think every resident should be interested in learning about and electing. Largely through some very active enrollment of younger board members in the last two years the existing board, and the incoming table officers, will be considerably younger than yours truly and some of the other "old guard" that have served the community for the last several years. These are the folks that are renovating houses, bringing up families and raising consciousness in the neighborhoods. All of them have been active in the association in other capacities of late and our now throwing their hats into the ring to do more. They will need your support, your input and suggestions, and sometimes your patience. There is much yet to be addressed in the West End - the stadium looms ahead in the not too distant future, the streets remain a patchwork of ditches and detours, and the traffic, crime and greenspace issues remain ever-present. The WEA is your association, your voice, your representative on the issues confronting the neighborhood. The board works on your behalf - let them know you care, you're watching and most of all, turn out for the election, see who's going to lead you in 2008 and beyond. I've enjoyed my time on the board immensely over the last six years and intend on staying active in the affairs of the community. So I won't say goodbye, just "until we meet again". Now get out and vote!

Neighborhood Watch Groups forming February 2nd!

Please note that there will be a meeting to start up new neighborhood watch groups in the West End on Sat. Feb. 2nd at 9 AM at the Police Station on Cherry and 8th streets.

At the meeting on Feb 2nd we will delineate watch areas (or blocks) and create block captains. Captain Cobb will be on hand to kick off the meeting and answer questions throughout, and Rick Pender of the Center for Community Safety will inform us on crime and neighborhood watch from his perspective. Also, block captains from the two existing watch groups will talk about their accomplishments and recommendations.

This meeting is open to all West End residents who care about maintaining a safe neighbor hood and would like to volunteer to participate in their watch groups.
