West Ender wins ECHO Award

Congratulations to West Ender Clark Harper who recently won an ECHO Award from the Winston Salem Foundation! Clark has built social capital in our community through the use of technology, with his innovative Event-O-Rama web community calendar. When the use of the Internet became prevalent in the late nineties, Clark used his skills as a computer programmer and web developer, and created Event-O-Rama, allowing nonprofit and community groups to post their events in a free form listing, allowing them to publicize their activities over the Internet free-of-charge. While the Event-O-Rama Web site has just been retired, it provided the essential community groundwork for community-building sites such as the recently-launched Web site – CityoftheArts.com. Putting technology in motion to serve the good of the community, Clark Harper has proven that Everyone Can Help Out – by spreading social capital in a way that may not be so obvious – by connecting individuals and community organizations for over 10 years, he has contributed to a much more vibrant and open Winston-Salem. Clark was nominated by Jeff Smith. (from the foundations website)

New Business in the West End

The following establishments are in new locations downtown or are taking over from those who have moved on in the previous year. One exception is one particular establishment needed more space to grow. Here's what's happening—

- Dioli's Trattoria - an Italian restaurant will be opening on the ground floor of the Stevens Center in the space previously occupied by Camel City Cafe. The proprietors are Karen and Roger Dioli who currently run Dioli's Italian Market on Reynolda Rd. This casual dining Italian restaurant will offer a mid-priced family friendly menu. They will be open Monday-Friday for lunch. Wednesday-Saturday for dinner and opening this summer.
- Breakfast Of Course! Mary's Too! will be opening at 723 N. Trade Street between Seventh Street and Martin Luther King Blvd in a renovated building. The proprietor is Mary Haglund of the popular Mary's Of Course! An anticipated opening for Breakfast Of Course! Mary's Too! is June 4th.
- Willow's Bistro will be opening in the former Winston's Eatery location at 300 S. Liberty Street, Suite 125 in the Historic Railroad Building on June 7th. The proprietors are Will Kingery and Norb Cooper, Jr. The bistro will feature southern comfort food with a flair. They will be open for lunch and dinner Monday-Saturday. Sunday brunch late morning through late afternoon. (Courtesy of Smitty's Notes)

WEST END HOMES TOUR NEWS

Plans for the 2010 West End Homes Tour are coming along nicely. The date has been set for Sunday, Dec. 12, from 1pm to 5pm. Some of the West End's newest neighbors have agreed to have their wonderful home on the tour., including John and Sheila Marshall, who purchased 710 Manly Street earlier this year. They have been hard at work renovating the kitchen and bathrooms and doing other work throughout the house. The Tudor style home, built in 1923, has some lovely original details including maple floors. This house was owned by Elizabeth Prince, a local journalist and Renaissance woman for over 40 years. This is the first time this house will be open as part of the tour.

If you would like to volunteer to be part of this years tour, please email Clare Fader at clarefader@gmail.com.

LETTER FROM WEA VP...

Hello neighbors.

For those of you lucky enough to have picked strawberries this year at The Children's Home, it will have confirmed for you that you live in the city's most amazing neighborhood. The strawberries were plentiful and delicious. My sister and I picked 2 gallons in 30 minutes, and that doesn't count the few we sampled along the way. Standing in the middle of the strawberry patch I felt like I was in the countryside, not a 15 minute walk from my house. We walked home balancing our bounty on top of my son's stroller. We stopped off at Reynolda Farm Market to pick up a half gallon of delicious ice cream from Homeland Creamery. I love my neighborhood!

If you missed out, don't fear. The Children's Home plans to have another strawberry patch next year twice as big as this years one. I'm counting the days already!!
